Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 7, there is no antecedent basis for "said radial spring force".

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-6,8 and 9 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art does not disclose or fairly suggest the rotational angioplasty device including a handle, a rotatable prime mover carried by a prime mover carriage which is movable in the handle, an exchangeable drive shaft cartridge removably attachable to the handle and including a tubular core element in the cartridge, a movable tube within the core, attachable to the carriage, a rotatable flexible drive shaft within the tube and having a distal tissue removal implement, a drive shaft attachment mechanism removably attaching the drive shaft to the prime mover, and particularly a coupling connecting the tube to the carriage and adjusting the position of the tube relative to the drive shaft; the coupling having an element fixed to the carriage and having on interface, a 2nd interface on the movable tube, the surfaces telescopingly overlapping, a retention groove in one surface and an indexing groove in the other surface, an annular resilient element in the retention groove exerting a radial force between the coupling surfaces and expanding into the indexing groove such that when the grooves are aligned the drive shaft can rotate within the movable tube.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
